

WIZO Touching the Lives of Israelis Since 1920.

1920

WIZO, the Women's International Zionist Organization, was established in London as a non-partisan movement to improve Israeli society. Since then, it has become an integral part of the lives of hundreds of thousands of Israelis, women, men and children.

A GLOBAL WORLDWIDE FORCE

drives WIZO. With their support, we can give underprivileged populations in Israel the opportunity to create a better future, lead the struggle to promote women's rights, raise the next generation, and strengthen vulnerable families.

800 PROGRAMS AND INSTITUTIONS

throughout the country make WIZO the largest social welfare organization in Israel, offering educational and social services for children, women and youth.
